In Black and White: Political Violence in Argentina (1969-1985)

Thirty black and white photographs by renowned Argentine photojournalists covering 15 years of political violence, from the 1969 popular uprising in the city of Cordoba known as “Cordobazo” to the trial of former military Junta members in 1985 for human rights violations.

March 22-27, 2009
Sunday 12pm – 9pm
Monday – Friday 7am – 11pm

Gallery Lounge – Room 346
Student Center 3rd floor
33 Gilmer St. (corner of Gilmer and Courtland)

Georgia State University

Sponsored by:
Center for Human Rights and Democracy - Georgia State University
Consulate General of Argentina in Atlanta

For more information, contact Dr. Fernando Reati at freati@gsu.edu or 404-413-5980