Mark Danner: Living with the New Normal
Human Rights, U.S. Foreign Policy and the 2012 Elections

Thursday, April 19, 1 p.m.
Florence Kopleff Recital Hall

Throughout his almost 30 years as a journalist, Danner has written and reported about a wide range of foreign affairs events and conflicts including issues related to terror, torture, and America’s role in the world. His new book, Torture and the Forever War, will appear in Spring 2012.

Mark Danner teaches at the University of California at Berkeley, where he is Professor of Journalism, and at Bard College, where he is Henry R. Luce Professor of Human Rights and Journalism.

The Hellen Ingram Plummer Lecture, endowed in 1999 in honor of the late Atlanta arts patron, brings to campus scholars, scientists, artists and performers who have made notable contributions to their fields of achievement and to society at large.
