CHAPTER 1 - Cultural Politics, Ekphrases: Writing of Resistance, and Sensorial Aesthetics
- Conflict in Space, Identity, Citizenship, and Gender
- Embodied Memorialis and Resistance: Body-text-Landscape as Non-Canonical Archive
- Corporeal Ethnography Through Sensorial Aesthetics

CHAPTER 2 - Meaning Making of Embodied Performatic Repertoire
- Toward an Understanding of Intangible Cultural Traditions
- Embodiment Through Orality, Music, and Dance
- Un/binding Memories and Communities through Tactful Symbols of Fragmentations

CHAPTER 3 - Aesthetics of Pain: Embodied Poetics of negation
- Notions of Propriety, Consumerism, and Commodification
- Representations of Pain in Transgressional Texts and Transgression in the Feminine

CHAPTER 4 - Transgression in Pleasure, Desire, and Gender
- The Unwatchable Sex or the Puncturing of the Exotic, Ecstatic, and Erotic
- Creating a New Look on the Black Female Body