

The Asian Studies Center, the Center for Latin American and Latino/a Studies, the Asian Studies Club, the Gamma Chapter of Delta Phi Lambda Sorority, Inc., the Latin American Student Association, the GSU Chapter-Hispanic Scholarship Fund and the Lambda Theda Phi Latin Fraternity Inc Colony at GSU

PRESENT A FREE SCREENING OF

“...it’s as powerful a booster of the democratic process as anything Frank Capra ever imprinted into our collective memory.”

Desson Thomson
Film Critic, Washington Post

“9500 Liberty makes it clear that when we, as a nation of immigrants, debate the immigration issue, we are defining our very identity as Americans.”

John Grisham
Best-Selling Author of The Firm, The Pelican Brief and The Contender

“One of the best documentary films I’ve ever seen.”

Simon Rosenberg
President, NDN

“Our congratulations, and our gratitude, go out to the makers of 9500 Liberty, who have turned the spotlight on a phenomenon that is sadly sweeping our land: communities taking immigration enforcement into their own hands. ... At its heart, 9500 Liberty is the story of a community that lost its core and almost lost its soul.”

Terri Burke
Executive Director, ACLU of Texas

“The movie is freakin’ amazing.”

Markos Moulitsas
Founder, Daily Kos

“9500 Liberty moved me to tears. It’s raw, in-your-face filmmaking at its best.”

Louis Gurgitano
Director, Charlotte Film Festival

Join us for a screening and a discussion with Special Guests Discussants:

Helen Kim Ho, Asian American Legal Advocacy Center
Teodoro Maus, Georgia Latino Alliance for Human Rights

Tuesday November 9, 2010 – 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

GSU Cinefest Film Theatre
66 Courtland Street SE, Suite 240
Atlanta, GA 30303