

Georgia State University Homecoming 2009
Theme: “The Blue Print: Building the Foundation”
Office Decorating Contest Rules

Display your Panther Spirit by participating in Georgia State University Homecoming 2009 Office Decorating Contest.

1. Complete the Georgia State University Homecoming 2009 Entry Form. Indicate your participation in the Office Decorating Contest as door/cubicle, office of less than 10 or office of 10 or more staff. Return the entry form to the Office of the Dean of Students, Student Center, Suite 300 by Monday, January, 28, 2009 by 5:00 p.m.
2. The Contest is designed to demonstrate school spirit through creative endeavor, encourage a team effort, and foster healthy competition. It is not a demonstration of financial resources! If you wish to purchase items for the contest, there is a limit of $20 per entry; however, our expectation is that you spend no money at all. The following is a list of decorating ideas that can assist you in lowering the cost:
 - a. Use items that are donated or already available in you office. Use your staff and coworkers as resources for supplies.
 - b. Consider your staff and coworkers as part of the decorating theme, that is, encourage them to wear items that demonstrate Georgia State spirit.
 - c. Combine your efforts with other departments or student organizations...increase your chance of winning by collaborating.
 - d. Student organizations can decorate their office (if applicable) or their advisor’s door as a student organization entry.
3. Be creative, but do not cause fire hazards. Any entry found to be a fire hazard or a disturbance to others will be immediately disqualified from the contest.
4. Complete your door, cubicle, or office decorations by Monday, February 9, 2009. Contest judging is scheduled for Wednesday, February 11, 2009.
5. Prizes will be awarded in three separate categories:
 - a. Door/Cubicle decorations (1 staff person)
 - b. Office decorations of less than 10 staff
 - c. Office decorations of 10 or more staff
6. Contest winners will be recognized during Homecoming festivities.
