

LET FREEDOM RING

Office of the Dean of Students/ Intercultural Relations Presents MLK SERIES & CONVOCATION 2012

Monday, January 16
City of Atlanta

A Day On, Not A Day Off:
Hands On Atlanta Service Projects
This event is an annual city-wide day of service. For more information and to sign-up to participate in service opportunities, go to www.handsonatlanta.org or visit the Office of Civic Engagement, Suite 320, Student Center.

Wednesday, January 18
Noon – 1 p.m.
Rialto Center for the Arts

Feed Your Senses: All That Jazz
A performing arts series featuring vocalist Gwen Hughes and the sounds of classic jazz.

Monday, January 23
5 p.m. – 7 p.m.
460/465 University Center

Intercultural Relations Goes 3-D:
Dinner, Diversity, and Dialogue
Remembering Dr. King's Dream
This 3-D event will focus on Dr. King's historic 1963 I Have A Dream speech. Dinner will be provided.

Tuesday, January 24
3 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.
Student Center Ballroom

29th Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Convocation
Join the University community in the celebration of Dr. King's life and legacy. Intercultural Relations is honored to have Lisa Ling as the 2012 Convocation speaker. In addition, the MLK Torch of Peace and Hosea Williams Award winners will be recognized. Reception to follow program.

Thursday, January 26
4 p.m. – 8 p.m.
Student Center Art Gallery Lounge, 3rd Floor

Sociocultural Integration and Salsa Dance in Atlanta: Documentary Photography by Dr. Doris A. Derby
Join Dr. Doris A. Derby, Director of the Office of African American Student Services and Programs, as she opens her spring photographic exhibit. This exhibit will document the pioneers of Salsa dance in Atlanta during the early 1990s, depicting the sociocultural integration which occurred in Atlanta via a rich dance and musical phenomena rooted in Africa and widespread around the world. The exhibit will run January 16 – February 29.

Friday, January 27
12:15 p.m. – 4 p.m.
Various locations

Community Service Projects
Join the Office of Civic Engagement for an afternoon of service. The GSU community will have the opportunity to work with various local non-profit agencies, focusing on the areas of education, homelessness and health care. For more information and/or to sign-up to participate, contact the Office of Civic Engagement at 404-/413-1550 or www.gsu.edu/service.

For more information contact:
Intercultural Relations
330 Student Center
404/413-1580
www2.gsu.edu/interculturalrelations