

INTERCULTURAL RELATIONS

Religions of the World Art Exhibit

MLK Convocation 2012

Lunch and Learn

Atlanta Exploration Tour

SPRING 2012 EVENTS

Intergroup Dialogue

INTERCULTURAL

RELATIONS

January 2012

MLK Commemorative Series 2012

Monday, January 16 – Friday, January 27

Two weeks of events honoring the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Feed Your Senses: All That Jazz

Wednesday, 18 Noon – 1 p.m.

Rialto Center for the Arts

A performing arts series featuring the sounds of classic jazz.

Intercultural Relations Goes 3-D: Dinner, Diversity, and Dialogue Remembering Dr. King's Dream

Monday, 23 5 – 7 p.m.

460/465 University Center

This 3-D event will focus on Dr. King's historic 1963 I Have A Dream speech.

29th Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Convocation

Tuesday, 24 3 p.m.

Student Center Ballroom

Join the University community in the celebration of Dr. King's life and legacy. Lisa Ling will provide the keynote address.

February 2012

Heritage Months in America

Thursday, 2 6 – 8 p.m.

Lanier Suite, Student Center

Join the Intercultural Ambassadors to discuss the significance of having various heritage or history months throughout the year, such as Black History and Hispanic Heritage Months.

Safe Zone Training

Friday, 10 Noon – 2 p.m.

235 University Center

Safe Zone training offers a comprehensive review of issues regarding the LGBTQIQ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, Questioning) community on campus. This training provides strategies for all members of the GSU community to effectively serve as LGBTQIQ allies. Lunch will be provided.

Lunch and Learn: Diversity of Love

Tuesday, 14 Noon – 1 p.m.

460/465 University Center

In celebration of Valentine's Day, this program will focus on the intersection of diversity and love. Topics such as interracial dating and gay marriage will be discussed. Lunch will be provided.

Feed Your Senses: Middle Eastern Music

Wednesday, 15 Noon – 1 p.m.

Rialto Center for the Arts

A performing arts series featuring music of the Middle East. Lunch will be provided.

Intercultural Relations Goes 3-D: Dinner, Diversity, and Dialogue Diversity and the 2012 Presidential Election

Tuesday, 21 5 – 7 p.m.

Lanier Suite, Student Center

This 3-D event will focus on diversity issues relating to the 2012 presidential election. Dinner will be provided.

March 2012

Gender Equality through Fashion Expression

Thursday, 8 6 – 8 p.m.

Lanier Suite, Student Center

Join the Intercultural Ambassadors to examine the history of women's equality through changing fashion trends for women over the last 100 years.

Intercultural Relations Goes 3-D: Dinner, Diversity, and Dialogue Cyberbullying and the Millennials

Monday, 12 5 – 7 p.m.

Capital Suite, Student Center

This 3-D event will focus on the phenomenon of cyberbullying and its negative impact on the millennial generation. Dinner will be provided.

A Day with John Quinones

Tuesday, 13 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Speaker's Auditorium, Student Center

In collaboration with OEO/TRIO programs, Mr. Quinones will speak on: Hispanic people in America: A vision of their lives today and prospects for the future.

Lunch and Learn: Reproductive Justice

Thursday, 15 Noon – 1 p.m.

Capital Suite, Student Center

This event will focus on the concept of reproductive justice. Lunch will be provided.

Feed Your Senses: Sounds of the Sitar

Wednesday, 21 Noon – 1 p.m.

Rialto Center for the Arts

A performing arts series featuring dance and music from India. Lunch will be provided.

Atlanta Exploration Tour: State Capitol

Friday, 23 Noon – 5 p.m.

480 University Center

Explore the connections of diversity and the history of the State of Georgia by touring the state capitol. Reserve your space by Friday, March 16 in the Office of Student Activities. Lunch will be provided.

Safe Zone Training

Friday, 30 Noon – 2 p.m.

235 University Center

Safe Zone training offers a comprehensive review of issues regarding the LGBTQIQ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, Questioning) community on campus. This training provides strategies for all members of the GSU community to effectively serve as LGBTQIQ allies. Lunch will be provided.

April 2012

Intercultural Relations Goes 3-D: Dinner, Diversity, and Dialogue Culture of Whiteness

Monday, 2 5 – 7 p.m.

Capital Suite, Student Center

This 3-D event will focus on what it means to identify as White in America and the culture of Whiteness in everyday society. Dinner will be provided.

The Collar of Class

Thursday, 5 6 – 8 p.m.

Lanier Suite, Student Center

Join the Intercultural Ambassadors to examine the class system in American society through the “collars” we wear (e.g., blue collar, white collar, pink collar, etc.).

Lunch and Learn: (Dis)Ability and the College Student Experience

Thursday, 12 Noon – 1 p.m.

460 University Center

In collaboration with the Office of Disability Services, this program will feature college students who identify as having a (dis)ability. Lunch will be provided.

Atlanta Exploration Tour: Atlanta History Center

Friday, 13 Noon – 5 p.m.

Sinclair Suite, Student Center

Explore how diversity issues have played a role in the history of the City of Atlanta. Reserve your space by Friday, April 6 in the Office of Student Activities. Lunch will be provided.

Feed Your Senses: The Italian Opera

Wednesday, 18 Noon – 1 p.m.

Rialto Center for the Arts

A performing arts series featuring music from selected Italian operas. Lunch will be provided.

For additional information:

Office of Student Activities

Suite 330, Student Center

404/413-1580

www2.gsu.edu/interculturalrelations

Find us on Facebook

www.facebook.com/GSUInterculturalRelations

Follow us on Twitter

@IR_GSU

DEAN OF
STUDENTS

DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS