

Q: Which Nobel Peace Prize winner founded the Grameen Bank?

A. Mohammad Yunus

For more questions like these, come join the fun at the :

SECOND ANNUAL METRO ATLANTA ACADEMIC WORLDQUEST!

Saturday, March 8, 2008

Georgia State University Student Center Ballroom

What is Metro Atlanta Academic WorldQuest?

Metro Atlanta Academic WorldQuest is a high school team competition that tests contestants' knowledge of international topics including World Affairs, International Financial Institutions, People in the News, the Global Market Place, Current Events and more.

Winners from this competition will represent Metro Atlanta and compete with at least 47 teams from across the country at the national competition in Washington D.C. on the weekend of April 4-6, 2008.

Who Can Participate?

Teams of interested high school students. A team consists of four high school students from grades 9-12. Teams may be accompanied by a faculty coach.

What is the competition like?

The competition will involve ten rounds of ten multiple choice questions each. Answer sheets are submitted following each round and the team with the highest overall points wins the "Metro Atlanta Academic WorldQuest Championship" and represents Metro Atlanta at the national competition.

Prizes:

Medals and trophies will be awarded to the best participating schools. Students going to the national competition will be sponsored and Certificates of Participation will be awarded to all participating schools.

To register, send your registration form and check (payable to Georgia State University) to the attention of: Dr. John Kesner, Department of Early Childhood Education, Georgia State University, P.O. Box 3980, Atlanta, GA 30302-3980

Registration Cost: $50 per team

Registration Deadline:
January 15, 2008

Registration Information:

<http://www.gsu.edu/~wwwoia/worldquest.htm>

WorldQuest is a flagship program of the World Affairs Council of America. Metro Atlanta WorldQuest Program is co-sponsored by Georgia State University and the Southern Center for International Studies.

