

MASTERS PROGRAM IN PHILOSOPHY

GSU DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

- ◆ Two-year MA program ranked one of the top five in the nation
- ◆ Excellent placement record
- ◆ 17 faculty members with diverse research interests
- ◆ Areas of strength in:
 - ◆ Legal/Political Philosophy
 - ◆ Neurophilosophy/Philosophy of Mind
 - ◆ Kant/Post-Kantian German Philosophy
- ◆ JD/MA degree ranked 2nd in nation
- ◆ Neurophilosophy Track affiliated with GSU's Neuroscience Institute
- ◆ Exchange programs with Sorbonne (Paris) and Bielefeld Univ. (Germany)
- ◆ Home of the Jean Beer Blumenfeld Ethics Center

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

- ◆ Neurophilosophy Fellowships (2)
 - ◆ Full tuition and $15,000/year
 - ◆ No teaching duties
- ◆ Legal/Political Philosophy Scholarship
 - ◆ Full tuition and $12,000/year
 - ◆ Teaching duties in 2nd year
- ◆ German Philosophy Scholarship
 - ◆ Full tuition and $12,000/year
 - ◆ Teaching duties in 2nd year
- ◆ Up to 20 funded Assistantships
 - ◆ Full tuition and up to $10,000/year
 - ◆ Teaching / assistantship duties
- ◆ Georgia State is an equal opportunity employer. The department seeks diversity. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Information at www.gsu.edu/philosophy or email Tim O'Keefe at tokeefe@gsu.edu

Initial Application Deadline: February 15, 2010