If an applicant

(a) is on academic probation, suspension, exclusion, or any other type of academic warning at any previously attended institution,

(b) is ineligible to enroll at any previously attended institution,

(c) is currently charged with, or has been found guilty of, any violation of academic honesty, honor code, or conduct regulations of a previously attended institution,

(d) left a previous institution while there were pending charges of any violation of academic honesty, honor code, or conduct regulations,

~~(e) is currently charged with, or has been found guilty of, any violation (including first offenses) of a federal, state or municipal law, regulation or ordinance other than minor traffic violations;~~

(e) is currently charged with or has been found guilty of any violation of a federal, state or municipal law, regulation or ordinance other than minor traffic violations, including offenses for which any type of first offender status has been granted,

(f) has ever entered a plea of guilty, no contest, nolo contendere, or an Alford plea, or has otherwise accepted responsibility for the commission of a crime,

(g) has received any type of discharge from military service other than an honorable discharge, then the applicant's case will be reviewed to insure that the applicant meets the satisfactory academic performance, good character, and good conduct requirements noted above.

If, after a letter of acceptance has been issued, information comes to light that shows that an applicant did not meet all admission requirements or that an applicant's application contained omissions or misrepresentations, the applicant's offer of admission will be automatically revoked. If this information comes to light after the student has enrolled, the applicant's enrollment at Georgia State will automatically be terminated and earned credit may be revoked.

Any changes in a student's record prior to enrollment will necessitate a new review of the application.

2008-2009 Catalog Text

Any changes in a student's record prior to enrollment will necessitate a new review of the application. Any omissions or misrepresentations on a student's application for admission will automatically invalidate consideration by, acceptance to and continuation at Georgia State. If an applicant (a) is ineligible to enroll at any previously attended institution, (b) is on probation, suspension, exclusion, or any other standing indicating either an academic or a conduct deficiency at any previously attended institution, (c) has been found in violation of the academic or non-academic code of conduct at any previously attended institution, or (d) has been convicted for violation of a federal, state or municipal law, regulation or ordinance (other than minor traffic violations), then the applicant's case will be reviewed to insure that the applicant meets the satisfactory academic performance, good character, and good conduct requirements noted above. If, after a letter of acceptance has been issued, information comes to light that shows that an applicant did not meet all admission requirements, the applicant's offer of admission will be withdrawn. If this information comes to light after the student has enrolled, the applicant's enrollment at Georgia State will be terminated and earned credit may be revoked.
