

$15,000 FELLOWSHIPS IN NEUROPHILOSOPHY

$15K Georgia State University Neurophilosophy Fellowships

- The Department of Philosophy at Georgia State University is offering two $15,000 Brains & Behavior Fellowships to well-qualified students applying to its highly regarded Master's program.
- The Brains & Behavior Program provides B&B Fellows with an opportunity to study issues at the intersection of philosophy, neuroscience, psychology, biology, and artificial intelligence.
- B&B Fellowships cover tuition, provide $15,000/year for living expenses, up to $500/year for travel to conferences, and require no teaching duties.
- For more information, go to www.gsu.edu/philosophy or email Dr. Tim O'Keefe at tokeefe@gsu.edu

Deadline: February 15