Senate Library Advisory Committee Meeting

October 6, 1999, 12:30 pm
Library South Colloquium Room

Present: Meg Harper, Charlene Hurt, Philo Hutcheson, Ramona Matthews, Tammy Sugarman, Anne Tilden and Katherine Willoughby.

The meeting was opened with the election of the new chair, Meg Harper of the English Department.

Tammy Sugarman, History and Art Liaison, demonstrated new databases, including the Web of Science, Web Historical Newspapers, and VStor.

The Student Government Association representative introduced himself and said that SGA wants to find ways of getting students together. He mentioned the library use instruction classes and how these classes could be a way of bringing students together.

There was a discussion of concerns for the time it takes for records of GRA’s to be loaded in the library system.

C. Hurt announced that Auxiliary Services will rebid the Copy Center contract.

The meeting was adjourned.

Maggie Mitchell
Recorder