University Senate Committee on Student Discipline

14 April, 2004 Hearing Minutes

The Committee on Student Discipline convened at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, 14 April, 2004 to consider the charges of violation of the Student Code of Conduct, Section 5.2, Discriminatory Harassment, Section 8.0 Alcohol Policy, and Section 13.10a Additional Policies against a GSU organization. Committee members present for the hearing were Sam Cox, Greg Brack, Val Miller, Michael Murrell, and Maisha McClain, and the committee’s GSU legal advisor Jeannie Barrett. Also present were complainant Pamela Anthony and her witnesses, her GSU legal advisor Kerry Heyward, the President of the organization with two advisors and witnesses, and Committee Assistant Michael Cohen.

Both parties presented their statements and evidence to the committee. Their witnesses provided testimony and responded to questions from the committee. In conclusion, the committee determined unanimously that the organization had violated sections 8.0 and 13.10a of the Student Code of Conduct. The organization was also found guilty of violating section 5.2 by a majority vote of the committee. The discipline committee’s recommended sanctions were submitted to the Dean of Students.
