The Committee on Student Discipline convened at 8:00 a.m. on Tuesday, 11 May, 2004 to consider the charge of violation of the Student Code of Conduct, Section 5.2 Discriminatory Harassment, by two GSU students. Committee members present for the hearing were Sam Cox, Joe Rau, Val Miller, Ritu Lohtia and Maisha McClain. Also present were: discipline committee legal advisor Jeannie Barrett; complainant Pamela Anthony, her witnesses and GSU legal advisor Kerry Heyward; the two students charged, their advisor and student advocate; and Committee Assistant Michael Cohen.

Both parties presented their statements and evidence to the committee. Their witnesses provided testimony, and, they responded to cross-examination as well as questions from the committee. In conclusion, the committee determined that the accused students had not violated Section 5.2 of the Student Code of Conduct. As a result, no disciplinary sanction was recommended.
