Call to Order
The meeting was called to order at 10:05 a.m. by chair Dr. Kurt Keppler.

Approval of the October 30, 1997 Minutes
The minutes were approved unanimously.

Chartered Student Organization Petitions
The following student organization petitions were approved unanimously: College Republicans of Georgia State University, Georgians Against Nuclear Energy, Intellectual Property Law Society, the Nuwaubian Club, and Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, International. The motion to accept was made by Kevin Propst and seconded by Elizabeth Heidler. The charters were approved unanimously.

Student Center Update
Dr. Larry Munn informed the committee that the construction of the new Student Center is still on schedule with an opening date of March 30, 1998. He anticipates that offices will begin relocating by the end of February. The new facility will include a ballroom, auditorium seating for 425 people, eight new conference rooms, and an additional food court. Dr. Munn also offered any interested members of the SLDC a tour of the new Student Center at 3:30 p.m. on November 20, 1997.

Fee Review Committee
Dr. Keppler announced that there would be a delay on discussing the Fee Review Committee due to the Board of Regents redirecting funding. This issue shall be readdressed at the next SLDC meeting scheduled for January 15, 1998.

Student Judicial Guide
Dr. Kurt Keppler tabled the discussion of the Student Judicial Guide until all members of the Student Life and Development Committee receive updated drafts of the document. Dr. Keppler emphasized the intended shift of the guide from a legalistic tone to a more educational one.

SGA Ad Hoc Committee
Mr. John Rowell of the Student Government Association provided an update on the SGA Ad Hoc Committee. According to Mr. Rowell, the purpose of the Ad Hoc Committee is to study six or seven other university's senate constitutions in order to better evaluate the GSU constitution. The committee plans to offer their written proposals in winter quarter 1998 and then have a student vote on any proposed changes this upcoming spring quarter 1998.

Announcements
Dr. Kurt Keppler called for any further announcements or business. With no further business, Dr. Keppler adjourned the meeting at 10:45 a.m.

Note: The next SLDC Meeting was originally scheduled for January 15, 1998. However, since this date conflicted with the Martin Luther King, Jr. Convocation, Dr. Kurt Keppler elected to reschedule the meeting to January 22, 1998.
