Product Safety & Liability Reporter

What this service is:
This authoritative report keeps your finger on the pulse of all significant developments and issues in product safety and liability, and provides the resource materials you need to better represent your clients.

What it helps you do:

* Protect your business or clients with accurate, objective news of legislative proposals, regulatory changes, agency actions, and court decisions relating to product safety and liability.
* Comply confidently with government requirements by finding out sooner about changes to the Consumer Product Safety Act and other relevant statutes and regulations.
* Learn about product recalls and enforcement actions that may affect your business or clients.
* Depend on BNA's expert analysis to spot legal trends early -- developments are often reported months ahead of other publications -- and assess their impact on the value and strength of your cases.
* Find out about litigation developments usually unavailable from other sources, including pre-trial filings and decisions, evidentiary rulings, and verdicts and settlements.
* Know what litigation strategies your adversaries and colleagues are using, and how the courts are responding
* Put significant developments into perspective and determine what they mean for your practice. Leading practitioners regularly offer their views.
* Stay up to date without taking too much time. Easy-to-read, well-organized highlights let you see instantly which articles are of interest to you, so you can skip right to them.
* Rely on authoritative, absolutely unbiased reporting -- appreciated by plaintiffs’ and defense attorneys, judges, regulators, corporate counsel alike.
